THE TRIBUNE.

CALDWELL, IDAHO, NOV. 2, 1888.

—Fresh Oysters at Isidor Mayer's new store.

—A good cooking stove for sale cheap. Enquire at this office.

—The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Packard's at 2:30 this afternoon.

—Homer Stull, of Mountain Home, was in town several days this week.

—Go and see Moe's new line of jewelry. It is handsome, elegant, good and cheap.

—Read Isidor Mayer's new ad. and profit thereby. He is selling goods very cheap.

—Born, near Middleton, October 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kohlepp, a boy. Weight, 8 pounds.

—Rev. Gwinn will preach both morning and evening at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

—Try and win Isidor's $1,000. If you do not get a photograph of the next president, the money is yours.

—H. D. Blatchley, Montie B. Gwinn and P. A. Devers made a flying business trip to Boise City last Saturday.

—Capt. John E. Stearns, one of Nampa's broad-minded citizens, has ordered this great moral and religious weekly to his address another year.

—Rev. R. M. Gwinn is fighting the genuine old chills. The chills tackle a hard game when they jump upon Rev. Gwinn, and he will come out ahead.

—Tommy Doan, one of Young's bridge boys, had the first finger of his right hand amputated just below the second joint, last Thursday. A bad smash necessitated the amputation.

—P. A. Devers, who lays some unfounded claims to being the best looking man in town, has deserted the G. O. P. and gone over to the Woman's Rights party—provided they will accept him.

—Rev. G. Buzzelle, Episcopal minister stationed at Mountain Home, called on THE TRIBUNE last Thursday. Rev. Buzzelle's territory extends from Mountain Home to Weiser, and will consequently hold services occasionally at Caldwell. He is an able man and a good man, as evinced from the fact that he was once a prisoner.

—Isidor will give $1,000 in cash if he can not give a picture of the next president of the United States. If you desire to enter the contest, buy a box of Dr. C. Mc-Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, or a bottle of Crudform, a perfect liniment for pains, aches and bruises. Only 25 cents a bottle.

—The Fourth Annual Convention of the Idaho Sunday School Association will be held at Boise City, Idaho, on November 15 and 16. Each school in the territory is requested to send one or more delegates. An excellent programme has been arranged, and the convention promises to be very interesting.

—Our old friend, 'Gene Strohecker, who has been engaged in mining in Baker County, Or., for the past few months, came in last Saturday, the mine having closed down for the winter. He visited old friends here until Wednesday when he departed for Hailey where he has accepted a position under Robert Strahorn & Co. during the winter. He says Col. Meacham and family are well and will winter in Baker City.

—Mr. Dave Adams, of Silver City, called at this office last Tuesday. By trade Mr. Adams is a disciple of Faust, and was, of course, given the stool of honor during his stay. Mr. Adams is a mine and property owner in Owyhee county. We feel highly elated this week. Two ex-printers have called on us, one of whom is a minister and the other a highly respectable property owner and can prefix an Hon. to his name. It clearly shows that true genius cannot be kept down.

—About two weeks ago, on a bright moon-light night, the casual observer might have seen an "incomparable Bain wagon" with four seats and two persons on each seat with one person on each lap, making in all thirteen persons, as any school boy knows, wending its way through the sage brush toward the hospitable home of Frank Olmstead, where they had been invited to spend the evening in honor of Mr. Potter, of Portland. They were met there by Mrs. Olmstead and Mrs. Flower, ushered into the parlor, and entertained for a couple of hours in a most charming manner. A superb lunch among other things, figured conspicuously among the pleasures of the evening. About midnight the merry party got into their wagon and started for home. The spring seats groaned and the man in the moon looked down with jealous eyes and fumed.

—Isidor is still leading the drug trade of the city. Call and see him.

—Moe certainly has the most elegant assortment of ladies' and gents' chains ever seen in this part of the country. Call and see them.

—D. O. Castator, who came out from Illinois about a year ago to take charge of the Sebree ranch, says the problem of irrigation is too deep for him, and has gone back to Illinois where the good Lord does the raining free of charge.

—To relieve headache, correct disorders of the stomach and increase the appetite, and for the cure of liver complaint, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They are perfectly safe to take, and invariably promote a healthy action of the digestive and assimilative organs.

—The friends of Rev. and Mrs. Gwinn, and that includes everybody, surprised that worthy couple with a "Pound Party" last Tuesday evening. Everybody who attended was supposed to take a pound of something as a peace offering, and judging from the immense pile of general merchandise it is safe to say that no one neglected that important duty. It was a most pleasant affair throughout, the elegant lunch served by the ladies, God bless them, being by no means the least enjoyable part of the programme. Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn thoroughly appreciated the many evidences of friendship, and did all in their power to look surprised and make the evening enjoyable to the raiders. And they succeeded admirably.

—Mr. John Ireton, of the Payette valley, died at Rising Sun, Iowa, last week, of typhoid fever. Mr. Ireton was one of the largest and most prosperous stock man and rancher in the Payette valley. He is well and favorably known all over Southern Idaho, and was a man of wonderful enterprise and activity. In all his intercourse with the world at large he was the personification of honor and integrity, and his death leaves a vacancy that cannot be filled. As was reported in THE TRIBUNE some weeks ago, he was stricken down in Iowa while there with a car load of horses. The relatives that left from here for his bedside, arrived to late to see him alive. The sympathy of this entire community is extended to the bereaved relatives and friends.

SHORT TALKS ON POLITICS.
PERSONAL.—To Idaho Statesman—Does your "idea" apply to our patent inside also? If so prepare for war.

Three tried, true, loyal and able Idaho men! Riggs, Badley and Davis.

You can register election day when there is no other business at the polls.

Straight tickets will be scarce in this precinct. Even the "unterrified" talk about "scratching."

A letter from Hon. H. C. Riggs states that he caught a severe cold while canvassing the county, and is confined to the house.

We are very sorry to note that James S. Negley, Jr. is no better. Mr. Negley's sickness at this time was very unfortunate.

Tom. Cahalan will poll an immense vote in this precinct. Several old time republicans have announced their intention to vote for him and he will lose no democratic votes. Sure thing for Tom.

All voters should remember that commissioners are elected by districts. In this precinct you must vote for either Hartley or Langtree. If you cast your vote for any other candidate you will lose it, as it will not be counted. Remember this.

It is often said, and we think truly, that Badley was the only real representative that Ada county had at the last session. He is the only one that either party saw fit to renegade at any rate, and this itself is an acknowledgment of efficient service.

There are only 188 voters registered in Caldwell precinct. Two years ago there were over 200 votes cast, and conservative estimates place the number of voters in the precinct at present at 240. That leaves 62 unregistered voters, who will either have to register election day or lose their suffrage.

Swain Beatty, the Silver-tongued orator of Alkali Flat, is growing in popular favor and gaining votes every day. We were almost tempted to oppose Beatty for the simple reason that we did not want to lose so good a citizen. But when we reflected that Boise City needs good men worse than Caldwell does, we have concluded to let the Judge go, and go he will.

Mr. Joe Wilson called on THE TRIBUNE last Saturday and said that the language used by him in regard to Badley and Martin, which appeared in last week's TRIBUNE was false, and requested us to say he said so. Nevertheless we can get an affidavit from a man whose honesty and integrity is equal to Mr. Wilson's any day, that he did say it. As Mr. Wilson is no feature in this campaign the matter is not worth discussing, and we merely refer to set THE TRIBUNE right before the people as a paper that publishes nothing without good authority, and then stays with it.

There is a vast difference between a law maker and a county servant. You can control a county official and hold him accountable for the faithful performance of his duties. A man in the legislature does as he pleases; he can work and vote against your best interests and you can not help yourself. The only safeguard then is to send men to the legislature who have interests identical with yours; who have property that is subject to the same laws as your property; who are interested in the same measures you are; whose surroundings are such that a law will effect him the same that it does you, and you are protected. Badley and Davis are both so situated.

The democratic rally last Wednesday night was well attended and fairly enthusiastic. Cahalan, Haas, Ryals, Beatty and Wright addressed the meeting. Quite a number of ladies were in attendance. Had the speakers discussed less national issues and more county affairs, it would undoubtedly have had a better effect on the audience. THE TRIBUNE don't believe the people of Ada county care whether their servants believe in free wool or not, but they are somewhat interested in what they know about county affairs. Let Cleveland and Harrison take care of National issues; devote some time to our little home circle. The candidate that gets up a good, straight talk on local politics is going to win laurels. There is plenty to talk about.

A WRONG IMPRESSION RIGHTED.

ED. TRIBUNE.—The voters of the county, I think, are laboring under a wrong impression in regard to the changing of the law making the age 60 years instead of 50 years before a man is exempt from paying poll tax. I am being held accountable for my share of the enactment, and I think justly.

But the manner in which the change was made will, I think, exonerate me, when the facts are known. It will be remembered that four years ago a commission was appointed to revise the laws of Idaho and properly arrange them in one volume. There was no power given the commission to alter or change any law—to add to or take from any former enactment whatsoever—but to remove all obsolete laws, reconcile all conflicts, and arrange the volume under proper headings for handy reference.

At the opening of the Fourteenth Session they presented their finished work. There was a pile of manuscript eighteen inches square and four feet high to be passed upon, and as there was but one copy, it seemed utterly impossible for the two houses to examine and pass upon each section. At this juncture the commission appeared before the House, and gave the members their word of honor that there had been no laws changed, and that they had faithfully discharged their duties. Upon this assurance the Assembly voted unanimously to adopt the revised laws, as did the Council. In that revision this law was changed from fifty to sixty years. I suppose that no member knew of the change until after the adjournment. I did not at any rate. Personally I believe that a man should be exempt from paying poll tax at the age of forty-five years, and would so vote.

Yours, Etc.,
D. L. BADLEY.

STAR BEAMS.
ED. TRIBUNE.—Star is having some improvements this fall. Pap Fouch has just added thirty feet in length to his store building, and from the way he smiles I think he expects a big fall trade.

Next comes Senator Hill who has his elegant residence nearly completed. For real push and enterprise the Senator has few equals.

We learn that Albert Fouch threshed about five thousand bushels of grain off of one hundred acres, besides getting a crop of hay, which was sowed with the grain.

Rumor tells of a combat between two young men of our community. They were rivals, and it seemed as though murder would be done, when one saved himself by taking refuge behind the fair object of the contest.

Our public school, under the efficient management of Mr. McClelland, is progressing nicely. More than sixty scholars enrolled.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.
You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting with a new remedy. Consumption always seems, at first only a cold. Do not permit your dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to cure you in all the worst cases of this affection. Trial bottles free at Little & Blatchley's Drug Store.

PERSONAL.
Mr. N. H. Frohlieb, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I have great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh of the Lungs, I feel compelled to state that it has cured me, and I have not had an attack since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. I have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption cured me of Catarrh of the Lungs, and I am now a well man. Trial bottles free at Little & Blatchley's Drug Store.
